

How is your organization thinking of using AI in the organization?

As of today, how many distinct & active use cases are you aware of within your firm that leverage some specific form of AI?

Are those use cases focused on cost savings, revenue generation, or both?

How far along are you in implementing AI?

